LOCAL TRAILS (including walking/hiking, bicycling, cross country skiing, and equestrian trails):

Bald Eagle Valley Trail - An 11.5-mile walking, bicycling and cross country skiing trail between Castanea and Jersey Shore. Sections of this trail are complete and open for public use; others are still under construction. A 3.4-mile stretch between Castanea and McElhattan is open, as is another 3-mile section (Spook Hollow) in the McElhattan area. The trail traverses former railroad bed, abandoned township roads and active farm/township roads, and will ultimately connect to the Pine Creek Rail Trail in Jersey Shore. (Trail brochure available)

Chuck Keiper Hiking Trail - a strenuous, nearly 59-mile double looped hiking trail in Sproul State Forest. (Trail map available)

Donut Hole Hiking Trail - a 90-mile cross country hiking trail in Sproul State Forest in Clinton and Potter Counties. The trail can be accessed in Farrandville (just outside of Lock Haven) and runs through Hyner Run and Hyner View State Parks, up through Kettle Creek State Park. Skill: moderate to strenuous. (Trail map available)

Eagleton Mine Camp Trail - an approximate 20-mile Shared Use trail open to foot traffic, bicycles and horses, in Sproul State Forest in Clinton County. Trailhead is easily accessed off of PA Route 120, about eight miles north of Lock Haven. (Trail brochure available)

Historic Water Street, Lock Haven Walking Tour - More than 20 historic homes line Lock Haven's Water Street, between Henderson and Fourth Streets. A beautiful, easy walk. A brochure that highlights the homes in this historic section of town is available.

Kettle Creek Equestrian Trail - a 15-mile equestrian loop trail. Trailhead easily accessed at Kettle Creek State Park.

Kettle Creek Day Loop Trail - A 6.8-mile loop hiking trail that traverses through parts of Kettle Creek State Park and Sproul State Forest. This trail is considered strenuous due to a 1,200-foot climb to the Kettle Creek Vista. (Trail brochure available)

Lock Haven RiverWalk - the City's dike/levee flood protection system features a 4.5-mile (2.25 each way) scenic walkway along the West Branch Susquehanna River in downtown Lock Haven. The RiverWalk can be accessed at several points along Water Street.

Long Fork Day Hike - A 4.1-mile looped trail in Sproul State Forest suitable for family hiking. (Trail brochure available)

Mid-State Hiking Trail - a long-distance hiking trail that traverses through portions Clinton County. What's known as the Woolrich Region of the trail can be picked up in the village of Woolrich, seven miles outside of Lock Haven.

Pine Creek Rail Trail - a 62-mile, gently graded hiking/bicycling/cross country skiing trail through the Pine Creek Valley, in neighboring Lycoming and Tioga counties. (Trail map, brochure available)

ATV TRAILS (Maps available for all three ATV trails):

Whiskey Springs ATV Trail - a 50-mile Summer and Winter Trail in Sproul State Forest, Clinton County. Access is from the Two Mile Road. Trails are open to registered Class II ATVs less than 58" in width and less than 1,200 pounds. (NOTE: Currently limited use)
